Mardi Gras and carnival season is in full swing in the heart of steamy New Orleans.

A vibrant crew of revellers have assembled in glitzy costumes to make final preparations before taking their places on their flamboyant carnival float.

But a tragic event threatens to rain on their parade; their larger-than-life carnival king, Nick King, has been found dead in his dressing room.

Was Nick King murdered? If so, who amongst his colourful crew members could be responsible for turning the happy vibes of the Big Easy into unhappy vibes that are just a bit sleazy?
